1. Reliable, quality audiovisual equipment that works

- We use top AV brands with proven performance and reliability.
- Every AV system is assembled and tested in our workshop by qualified technicians before installation in order to minimize any potential AV problems occurring later.
- As commercial/corporate AV specialists, all of our equipment has been thoroughly road tested and proven by our existing client base.
- 3 Monkeys AV is at the forefront of audiovisual technology, bringing you the latest time saving and breakthrough educational systems.

2. Expert advice on the right equipment and set up

- Our AV specialist team have over 80 years collective experience.
- With over 10,000 AV installations and hire jobs, our consultants and technicians know the best solutions for your company.
- To determine the best products and systems for your Installation, we conduct a unique 3 Stage "AV System Analysis and Plan". This involves:
 1. Site meeting to identify your needs
 2. Preparation of a plan (proposal, budget, implementation timeline)
 3. Presentation to explain your various options.

3. Professional installation with a neat and tidy finish

- Our installation technicians are fully employed (not contractors), ensuring quality control on our workmanship and installation.
- Our project manager and technicians are conscious of minimizing disruptions during installation periods.
- We believe in leaving your environment as we found it, so our installers carry vacuums, drop sheets, dust pans and brushes.
- Your AV install will have a neat, tidy & clean finish, with all cables hidden or contained within conduits or ducts.

4. Thorough training, personalised service and timely support

- All our AV installs include comprehensive training to ensure your staff get the full benefit of the equipment and system.
- As specialists in commercial/corporate AV, we have both AV trainers and ex teachers to educate your staff in using the audiovisual equipment effectively.
- We are committed to providing regular ongoing phone and face to face support.
- Whilst many others sell AV product and move on, 3 Monkeys AV will provide timely support, customer service and troubleshooting for the life of your AV equipment & systems.

5. Reputable, professional AV specialists

- 3 Monkeys AV is a team of specialists who have worked in all areas of audiovisual in Perth over the last 25 years.
- All our staff are well presented, wear company uniform, mind their language and remember their working environment is your business.
- Our company is fully insured and professionally run. We carry licenses with APRA and ACMA.
- Our specialist staff are all police cleared, hold Working With Children Checks and have completed all relevant safety training.
- You will be looked after by a WA owned and operated team that cares about your company & staff.
